Introductory / Educational Range
During an initial introductory phase, we recommend you implement Surfaceskins by choosing one of our introductory educational designs to educate door users on both how to use the product & most importantly, what hygiene benefits it provides for the individual & others. These designs are currently available to order. For custom printed designs & all enquiries please email one of our team, or visit our website:

Benefits:

Hand washing & gel dispensers clean hands, but studies show as soon as you touch a door you risk becoming contaminated with germs deposited by other door users. Surfaceskins antibacterial pushpads are designed to kill deposited germs in SECONDS, helping to solve a serious infection control problem by keeping washed hands clean & preventing the spread of germs to yourself & others. Ideal for multiple sectors including: Hospital, Healthcare, Care Home & Dental for critical areas including: High Dependency Wards, SCBU’s, Neonatal, Elderly, Isolation, Washroom & Food Prep areas.

Benefits include:
- Self-disinfecting antibacterial pushpad to complement & improve gel dispensers & hand washing
- Engineered to KILL deposited germs in SECONDS protecting every door user
- Helps break the chain of infection & spread of germs via secretion of approved alcohol gel
- Successfully tested in NHS Laboratories and approved by a world-renowned infection control expert
- Proven effective against Norovirus, S.aureus, E.faecalis & Salmonella
- Designed to reduce HAI episodes, saving money on extended stays
- Low cost, minimal capital outlay, easy to fit & replace
- Demonstrates a passion for hand hygiene to your customers
- Pushpad lasts 1000 actuations or 7 days
- Gel dispensers or hand washing CLEAN HANDS + Surfaceskins = STAY CLEAN

Introductory / Custom Designs:

When introducing Surfaceskins into your establishment we recommend using our introductory designs to explain & share the benefits to users. After this initial educational launch period, custom print designs can be ordered, offering a POWERFUL NEW high visibility marketing space for your own message, or can be used to generate an offset income via third party advertising.
